

FORWARD PASS BRINGS DISASTER TO PUNAHOU

HONOLULU SCHOOL FOR BOYS FOOTBALL ELEVEN MAKE SUCCESS OF PLAY AND SCORE SHUT-OUT AGAINST KICKERS OF OAHU.

In the last football game in the present second team series, the Honolulu School for Boys yesterday afternoon won their second game from Oahu College by the close score of seven to nothing. They were able to score only by a successful forward pass made in the fourth period, to Kau at left end. In spite of the fact that the game resulted in a victory for the Honolulu team, it seemed that for most of the time they were slightly outplayed by their opponents, and certainly the ball was in the possession of the Punahou team most of the time.

The Honolulu team certainly has the knack of making forward passes as no other squad in the field has, not excluding the first team, and a great deal of the success that has attended them this year is due to their efficiency in this line. The results of this game puts the Kaimuki squad a little ahead of Punahou, for while the former beat the Kamehameha boys, the latter turned the trick on the collegians.

The following is a brief summary of the game by quarters:
First quarter—Honolulu won the toss and Makalela made the kick-off towards the Waikiki goal. Gus Ballentine received the leather and advanced to the forty-five yard line before he was downed. The play started off with a bang and Yap and Mott-Smith easily made first down in three plays. Then Alfred Yap made a spectacular run of twenty-six yards, giving Punahou the ball on their opponents' seventeen yards. However, his good work was lost on account of a fumble he made on the next play. This gave the Honolulu boys the pigskin within twenty yards of their goal line upon recovery by Norrie. At first Lyman of Punahou got through and smashed up several of the players, but Makalela made first down in the required four plays.

Forward Pass.
They continued to advance down the field until, by a twenty yard gain by Cockett, they had first down near the middle of the field. Here, however, their progress was stopped, and Makalela punted, the leather going to Ballentine on Punahou's twelve yard line. Instead of booting the ball out of danger the Oahu backs worked it out as far as the twenty-five yards but here they were forced to punt. Just before the end of the period, Gus kicked, and the punt was returned by Mac. Thus the ball belonged to Punahou at the close of the quarter. No score.

Mott-Smith Makes Gain.
Second quarter—Punahou, first down on their opponents' thirty-five yards. After a short run by Yap, Mott-Smith made a gain of fifteen yards, making first down within twenty-five yards of the goal line. It began to look like a touchdown for the collegians, but when they had only ten yards to go, Kim Wai fumbled the ball and another chance was lost. Reid recovered the leather, for Honolulu, and Cockett punted out of danger. Punahou received the ball and advanced to Honolulu's twenty yard line, and it again looked as if they were able to score. However, on a forward pass by Yap, Koon Yee nabbed the ball and the Kaimukiites advanced steadily up the gridiron until some good tackling by Johnston of Punahou, forced them to kick. The ball went to Punahou on their forty yard line. After two short line bucks, Gus punted, and when the ball ended a few seconds later, the ball was near the center of the field. No score.

Yap Receives Ball.
Third quarter—Cockett made the kick-off for Honolulu, and Yap received the ball on Punahou's ten yard line but he broke away down the field and managed to reach the forty-five yard line before he was captured. However, on the first play, the ball was fumbled, and it changed hands in the middle of the field. Upon failing twice to gain, Makalela made a successful forward pass to Norrie, and when he was downed, he had gained twenty yards. This gave the Honolulu School for Boys the "father of their opponents" thirty yard line. Cockett made a long gain, and when Kau made first down by a trick end around play, it looked like a touchdown for the players from the red hill district. However, Lyman and Brown each broke up a play, and Makalela attempted a place-kick.

The ball went short, and Kim Wai made a pretty catch, advancing to his thirty-five yard line, before he was nailed. The Puns were forced to punt, and the pigskin went to Makalela on the forty-five yard line of his team. Cockett then made a gain of three yards, followed by one of four by Makalela. Brown got through and spoiled the next play, and Cockett booted. Ballentine received on Punahou's fifty yards just as the whistle blew for the end of the third quarter. Score, 0-0.

Fourth Quarter.—On the first play the Punahou right end was found to be holding and his team received a fifteen-yard penalty. This put the ball on the four-yard line and Yap was called to punt. Farington was rich down on the man with the ball, and he nailed him on the Punahou's thirty-five yard line. On failing to gain a forward pass was attempted, but Yap managed to get his hands on it, and he piked down the field with nobody in front of him. Unfortunately, when he had made a clear field of thirty-five yards, he slipped and fell, thus losing a chance of making a touchdown. This gave Punahou the leather on their opponents' thirty-yard line, and Mott-Smith started out with two good plays, one of six and one of three yards. Then Kim Wai made first down on Honolulu's thirteen-yard line, and it again looked like a score for the collegians, but they failed to make their yardage, and Yap attempted a drop kick over the goal.

Ball Went Wild.
The ball went wild; it was received by Honolulu on their sixteen-yard line. For the next three plays the pigskin went back to Cockett, and the result was that at the end of the third it was first down on Honolulu's thirty-yard line. Then came the play that won the game.

While the Punahou men were lining up, Kau, Honolulu's left end, had gradually worked out to the edge of the field, unknown to the Punahou end and Makalela, whose business it was to watch him. On a silent signal the ball was snapped back, and Makalela made a pretty pass across the field to Kau. He received the ball, and before the "Huff and Blue" line was aware of what had happened he was tearing down the field at a great rate. By the time Punahou woke up it was too late to do anything in the way of catching Kau, and he completed the seventy yards and crossed the line for a touchdown. It was a neatly worked play, but if the Punahou team had been awake it could never have succeeded. Makalela easily kicked the goal, and the score stood: Honolulu School for Boys 7, Punahou 0.

Makalela kicked for Honolulu, and Kim Wai was downed near the middle of the field. Honolulu was offside, and this helped their opponents out by five yards. Then Mott-Smith broke away for ten yards, and this gave his team their first down on their opponents' forty-yard line. With hopes of a touchdown, Yap made an excellent pass to Kim, but the ball was fumbled, and it was transferred to the Honolulu boys on their thirty-five yards. They advanced it a little way up the field, but when the final whistle blew it was still near the middle of the field.

The lineup of each team was as follows:
Honolulu School for Boys—Pahau, r. e.; Kola, r. t.; Kam Moon, r. g.; C. S. Lee, e.; Reid, l. t.; Kau, l. e.; Norrie, q. b.; Koon Yee, f. b.; Cockett, r. h. b.; Makalela, l. h. b.
Officials—Referee, Stafford Austin; umpire, "Squid" Marcellino; timekeeper, J. T. Wine; head linesman, Parker Woods; assistant, Francis Cooper.

The victory of the Honolulu School for Boys was fittingly celebrated with a banquet at the Union Grill at which the team and their friends held a theater party at the Bijou.

In a close game of soccer, Central Grammar defeated Punahou at Makiki Field Wednesday afternoon. In the first half the ball was in Central's territory most of the time, but a change in the lineup in the second half turned the tide and two goals were scored in the last five minutes of play. Clever dribbling and passing by Charley Yim and Peter Chang, together with good shooting by Nelson Robinson, were responsible for Central's goals.

The Punahou players did good work in carrying the ball down the field past their heavier rivals, but were always blocked in the backfield or by Peter Oliver at the goal. Players:
Central—E. Oliver (captain), E. Chilworth, W. Cummings, R. Boyd, D. Vada, P. Lewis, V. Boyd, N. Robinson, K. Chung, P. Chung, A. Aguin, Charley Yim, C. Dyson, G. Dunn and C. Kidder.
Punahou—H. Pinesoth, (captain), P. Peterson, S. Baldwin, D. Larnue, P. Young, D. Pratt, A. Winkley, Roy Graham, I. Pratt, C. Hughes, F. Nichols and Pulley Lee.

The Kamehameha football game was postponed on account of the wet condition of the Kau field. On Friday, Central plays St. Louis at Athletic Park, and Punahou and Kamehameha meet at Punahou.

At the banquet tended the Philadelphia Athletics Club, J. K. Tener of "Sport" fame stated that he was proud of the fact that he was a professional baseball player some years ago and that he enjoyed the distinction of being the only pitcher Manager Mack ever made a home run off of.

Practically Every Fistic Star Presented With One Has Met With Misfortune.

There seems to be a growing sentiment among fighters to the effect that the presentation of belts emblematic of championships are apt to bring bad luck to the recipients.

"Take the Lonsdale belts given by the National Sporting Club of England," said a veteran sporting man, "and see what has usually happened to the holders. No sooner do they win the trophy for the first time than they get pounded to powder in the next scrap they have. Ledoux hung it on Digger Stanley just after the Digger was hailed as belt champ of his native land. Middleweight Jack Harrison copped off a belt, came over here and McGorty walloped him out in a punch. And you all know what happened to our friend Bombardier Wells, heavyweight champion of John Bull land, and the proud owner of another of the Lonsdale waist adorners. Both Palmer and Smith plastered the Bomb into a state of coma and he hasn't yet got over wondering how it happened. Give him one more belt and send him over here again and he'd probably be killed."

McCarthy Had a Hoodoo.
"But it isn't the Lonsdale trophies alone that carry a hoodoo along. How about some of our own belts, and presented to pugilistic heroes? Don't you recollect how Tom McCarry presented the last belt? Why, none other than poor Lattier McCarthy, who wound up his short-lived slugging career at Calgary. McCarthy won that belt by whipping Kaufman, Flynn and Palmer in succession, and he was mighty proud of it. But six months after he came into possession of the trophy death claimed him."

"Do you remember once when Jim Corbett thought he would retire from the heavyweight throne, before Fitz Simons beat him? He picked out Peter Maher, the big Celt, as the next best to himself, and Maher's New York friends were so tickled at having a Mick champ that they presented Peter with some kind of a belt. I don't know what became of Maher's trophy, but I do know that the very next scrap he had was with Fitz, and the red-top knocked him kicking with one punch."

Conley Fell Under Spell.
In 1910 Frankie Conley and Monte Attell met on the coast in a battle supposed to be for the bantam title. Neither one of them came within jumping distance of the bantamweight limit, but the bout was billed as a championship affair and McCarry gave a belt for the victor, who happened to be Conley. After that everybody Conley tackled kicked him almost to death. Owen Moran, Johnny Coulton, Joe Coster, Patsy Kline, Johnny Kilbane, all drubbed poor Conley, and what's more, he never has since shown good fighting form.

"Allittling Nelson was also presented with a belt, and only had it a short time before he lost the lightweight championship to Wolgast. Then someone wished a belt on Wolgast, and all the plagues of Egypt seemed to drop on Ad's head. Broken arms, thumbs, fits of sickness, an operation for appendicitis, ending up with defeat for his title, and the crowning of Willie Ritchie, as lightweight champion. It wouldn't be a bad idea for Leach to wish a belt on Nelson, but a belt and present it to Ritchie. I'd plank down a good-sized bet that such a gift would cripple Willie's muscles, paralyze his feet and make him easy for the tooth-collector. If I was a scrapper and anyone tried to give me a belt I'd do my best to pick him off at long range with a Grog, before he got close enough to slip the hoodoo to me."

Manager Chance of the New York Americans is anxious to secure a veteran catcher to coach his pitchers next year. Thomas or Lapp of the Athletics, Sullivan of the White Sox, Stange of Detroit, and Kling of the Cincinnati Nationals, are the men he is considering.

Rousing Meeting Is Held by Club Members and Active Year in Sports Is Promised.

Sixty members of the Healan Yacht and Boat Club attended the meet of the organization last night and matters pertaining to the future success of the club as well as the annual election of officers were discussed at length.

Secretary R. S. Blake read the minutes of the club for the year and it was gratifying to learn that the organization is enjoying prosperity and that all prospects point to the coming year being the best in the annals of the club.

It was voted to form a swimming club upon a larger scale than last year and to make strenuous efforts to do even better than has been accomplished in previous events. The success of George Cunha on the mainland has awakened the club to the realization that a good team backing him up will make the Hui Nalus hustle for their honors in the water.

The matter of sending a rowing team to the mainland in an endeavor to bring back the cup won by the Alameda crew last season was discussed and while the Hawaiian Rowing Association issued a deft to the mainlanders no acceptance of the challenge has as yet been received.

It was also decided to take an active part in athletics during the coming football season and James L. B. Greig was elected captain of the Healan Soccer team and will be at the helm in the opening game of the season Saturday afternoon on Lower Punahou field.

It was also decided to give a smoker at the club rooms before the close of the year. At the election of officers J. E. Jaeger was reelected president and A. T. Longley vice president for the fourth consecutive year, these two being the only members of the club being so honored.

R. E. Blake was reelected secretary, H. Lemke was reelected treasurer, and George E. Gall was reelected auditor. A. B. Kroll was elected captain of the club after Paul Jarrett had emphatically refused the honor. Jarrett was the only nomination for the position but upon his refusal to accept, a ticket was made up and A. B. Kroll received the highest vote. George McKinley was elected vice captain, L. M. Hale was reelected commodore while C. E. Mayne was elected athletic manager.

Secretary Blake informed those present that there are 210 active members of the club in Honolulu belonging to the seniors and freshmen, besides eight members in the junior ranks.

Outfielder Jimmy Johnson of the San Francisco club stole 123 bases during the recent Pacific Coast League season a new record. The San Francisco club arranged a Johnson day in his honor and the fleet runner received $1250, ten dollars for each stolen base. He was elected by the Cubs in September.

Joe Tinker has selected Alexandria, Louisiana, for the spring training camp of the Reds. Tinker says he will make several important deals within the next few weeks. He intimates that Hobbit Zell, Bescher, Benton and Marsans are on the market if he can secure players of equal skill.

Charley Schmutz, the new Brooklyn pitcher, is credited with being the box man in the Northwestern League this year. He worked in thirty-four games, faced 805 batters and was found for sixty-two runs and 173 safe hits, his opponents having a batting average of .200. He won sixteen games and lost ten.

It is reported that Gen. Charles H. Taylor and his son, John L. Taylor, are ready to sell their stock in the Red Sox, amounting to one-half. The Taylors, it is said, are not in sympathy with the McAleer-McKey regime.

Barney Dreyfuss scouts the idea of a baseball war with the Federal League. "You know it takes two to fight. The Federals have nothing we want," said Dreyfuss yesterday.

Bob McAllister, the coast middleweight, is in New York seeking matches.

HAPPY COUPLE CHANGE HOUR OF THEIR WEDDING TO ANSWER EARLY MORNING DARE OF PARTY OF FRIENDS

There was a whirlwind finish to the divided tonnage of Neil R. Slattery, late of San Francisco, and Miss Clara A. Huffman, late of Los Angeles, at three o'clock yesterday morning, when the Rev. R. E. Smith, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, got out of bed, put on his best tuxedo suit and performed the wedding ceremony which made the couple husband and wife. The honeymoon is now well under way and the many friends of the young couple will be at home to them in their pretty bungalow on Vineyard street after the first of the month.

As a matter of fact the wedding was only advanced a couple of days, or less, for all the arrangements had been made beforehand for their marriage today. However, all is well that ends well.

and it was simply a "dare" from some friends which hastened the wedding a few hours.
Mr. Slattery, who is manager for a department of the Honolulu Gas Company, a well known member of the Ad Club and its pirate band, and favorably known as an amateur singer here; Miss Huffman, who arrived from the Coast recently to become Mrs. Slattery, and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hattersby and Max Lange piled into an automobile and rushed out Marriage License Agent Thomas Treadway, at half-past one o'clock yesterday morning, and got the necessary license. Then they went to the parsonage of the Rev. Mr. Smith. He came down in his pajamas, but when he learned what was wanted he retired for a time and returned in garb more fitting for such a festive occasion.

Honolulu Boy Claims Hand and Heart of Southland Beauty.

John Brodie Williams of Honolulu, premier pitcher of the Sacramento baseball club and the leading mound artist in the Pacific Coast League for the 1913 season, and Miss Alonza Rico of Southern California, were married at Montecito, a suburb of Los Angeles, on November 8. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left Los Angeles for San Francisco on November 10 where they remained until yesterday, visiting Mrs. Louis A. Willis, Williams' sister. The newly married couple left San Francisco yesterday by the steamer Sonoma for Honolulu and will arrive here on Monday.

The following account of the wedding is culled from a Los Angeles paper of November 9:

"Miss Alonza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Rico, one of the pioneer Spanish families of Southern California, and John B. Williams, premier pitcher for the Sacramento baseball team and leading twirler in the Pacific Coast League for 1913, were married yesterday morning at St. Benedict's Church, Montecito, the Reverend P. J. O'Reilly of St. Patrick's Church, Los Angeles, officiating. The ceremony took place at half-past ten o'clock.

"Immediately after the ceremony a solemn high mass was sung by the Reverend O'Reilly, assisted by Reverend Justin Murat, of the Order of St. Basil, as deacon; and Brother Francis Luckenbell, of the same order, as sub-deacon. The nuptial mass was rendered with Gregorian chant under the direction of Rev. Raphael Deferece, O. D. C., St. Benedict, as organist. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played on the pipe organ by Mrs. C. E. De Stont, as the bridal party marched to and from the altar.

"Charles Dodson acted as the best man, while Miss Diana Rico, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids included Miss Rosa Yorba and Miss Venia Yorba. The matron of honor was Mrs. Florence Dodson Scheneman. Ignacia Garcia served as usher.

"The church was beautifully decorated with palms, potted plants and shrubbery for the occasion.

"Following the marriage ceremony, a wedding dinner was served the bridal party and guests at the home of the bride's parents at Montecito. More than one hundred guests were present.

"Mr. and Mrs. Williams will leave tomorrow for a honeymoon trip to Honolulu, where they will spend the winter. The bride is one of the most attractive young women of the Spanish race in Southern California. Her great grandfather was a general in the Spanish army and he came to America. The grandfather settled in Los Angeles, near Hollywood.

"The bride and groom met at a reception given by Mrs. Florence Dodson, a trifle over a year ago. It was a case of love at first sight, and the romance culminated with the marriage yesterday.

"The couple will remain in Honolulu until the spring training season opens when they will go to Detroit.

"The bride and groom will make their home in Los Angeles during the winter season."

General cessation of the storms throughout the Island channels is reported by the two vessels arriving in port yesterday from opposite directions. The Lakelike from Hawaii and the reliable W. G. Hall from its early week trip to Kauai both reported moderate seas and winds on their inward trips, although experiencing rough weather on the voyages out.

Nine prisoners were brought down from Kauai in charge of a deputy sheriff on the Hall, to be turned over to the territorial prison, they having been sentenced at the present term of the fifth circuit court.

The Kilauaea, as already announced again replaced the Mauna Kea on the Hilo run yesterday, leaving for the Big Island ports at ten o'clock in the morning.

BOOKIE IS BARRED BY ALL EASTERN TRACKS

The guileless bookie, with his little slate and chalk, was handed a knock-out blow by the Canadian Racing Association at its annual meeting November 6, that august body deciding that all tracks in the circuit must install pari-mutuel machines in 1915. At three tracks, Woodbine, Blue Bonnets and Dorval, the system is in use already, but at Port Erie, Windsor, Ottawa and Hamilton, the book makers hold the fort.

The day following her arrival from the Coast on the steamer Siboria, last Monday evening, Miss Carolyn R. Fulton, a teacher in the Kalihua waiana school, and William Porter Sledge, an engineer for the drydock at Pearl Harbor, were married at the Kamehameha chapel by the Rev. J. L. Hopwood. A few intimate friends attended the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Sledge will make their home in Manoa Valley.

Inspectorship of Weights and Measures Has Phoney Appearance to the Police Captain.

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.)
HILLO, November 17.—When the board of supervisors in the fit of generosity which seized it at its last meeting, created the new position of inspector of weights and measures, with the salary of one hundred and fifty bones a month attached thereto, it was thought that Police Captain Evangelino da Silva, who was scheduled to receive the position, would be tickled to death.

But that does not appear to be the case at all. As a matter of fact, Sheriff Pua states that Silva has not yet accepted the position. He is very doubtful that he will take it at all, and Silva has reserved time in which he may ponder over the question and arrive at a well considered decision.

In the mean time the sheriff has sent for a registered set of tested weights and measures from Missouri, where that kind of things grow, and when it arrives some one will be appointed inspector, Silva if he wants it; some one else, if Silva spurns the offer.

Must Go to School.

If Silva accepts the offer, he will not enter into his new glory at once. He will have to go to school first, in order that he may be duly qualified for his new position. The sheriff stated that if Silva accepted the job, he would be sent to the College of Hawaii, where he will attend the classes of Professor Young, who can teach him how to know a short yardstick when he sees it. While Silva is thus being taught new tricks, he will still hold only the rank of captain of police and be paid as such. It is only when he has become wise enough on the subject of weights and measures to be let out chasing bad ones on his own hook that he will receive the new title and the corresponding salary.

Silva Studying It.

The sheriff did not know why Silva declined to take the position, which is ordinarily considered a peach, is a lemon. It has just been suggested that in these days of official automobiles the county may find it impossible hereafter to give away any job, unless it has an official automobile attached thereto. It is possible that the supervisors may be asked to make an appropriation to provide for the traveling expenses of the newly created official. The suggestion has also been made that Silva fears that he may work himself out of a job, so that in the end he has none. It will not take many months to inspect all the weights and measures in the county, and once this has been done, there will be but very little for the inspector to do. He would thus be a sport and a predestined victim for the first wave of economy, which would sweep the county, and while the political barometer does not register even the remotest danger of such, at least not as long as the present board of supervisors holds out, Silva may think that the position of a captain of police in Hilo is worth several jobs in the bush.

AMONG THE BOXERS.

Willie Ritchie, the lightweight champion, intends to be busy. If he can arrange a bout with Freddie Welch, in New York in December, he will leave after that encounter for the coast, where he expects to fight Joe Rivers.

Persons who have insisted that McFarland cannot get under 145 pounds, ringside, and retain his strength are puzzled by the news that he has agreed to make 135 at three o'clock for Britton in Milwaukee. The statement that McFarland weighed 150 pounds when he boxed Murphy here recently is not supported by the facts.

Joe Levy, manager of Joe Rivers, Mexican lightweight, has closed a contract with Promoter McCarry of Los Angeles for Rivers to meet Leach Cross there in a twenty-round bout Thanksgiving Day.

Mathewson, Myers and Snodgrass, who are members of the New York Giants world's tour baseball team, will leave the party in California. Merkle and Doyle will be the only New York regulars to go abroad.

The Cincinnati Nationals will do their spring training at Alexandria, Louisiana.

Max Fleischmann, secretary of the Cincinnati Nationals, has resigned that position on account of the demands of his other business interests.

Sam Langford was as fat as a prize pumper when he knocked out Jack Lester at Taft, California, last Monday. He carried the punch that made him a source of merriment when he boxed Jeanette last month. Yet he punched Lester into a coked nut. The record will show that Lester was knocked out
